

Inner Healing Session Disclosure

The Springs Fellowship staff & volunteers are not licensed professional counselors. Please understand that professional help may be advised if the prayer leader deems it necessary.

Full disclosure and honesty in inner healing sessions are a requirement in order to gain absolute freedom. If an individual, living or dead, has been responsible for pain or trauma in the present or past, you must be willing to pray to forgive that person, or results will not be satisfactory. If you are not willing to do this, please postpone your appointment and pray for the ability to do this. Wait until you are able, or at least willing, to forgive. Forgiveness is a choice, not a feeling. Submit your questionnaire and make an appointment at that time.

You must promise to break with willful sin and bad habits and really desire to get rid of demonic bondages in order for us to make an appointment. You may consider praying this prayer before the session begins:

I confess Jesus Christ to be my personal Savior. I renounce any oppression from the evil one in my life because of iniquity, transgression, and sin of my parents, ancestors or myself and humbly ask God for release and cleansing through the blood of Jesus Christ. I repent from every sinful attitude, action or habit of mine which does not glorify Jesus Christ and ask forgiveness, release, cleansing and wholeness. I renounce the devil and all demonic influences, bondages, dominations and infirmities in my life. I ask You, Lord, for the release and freedom promised by Jesus Christ so that He may be Lord of my total personality and be glorified in all I say and do. In His name I pray, amen.

This must be your honest and sincere desire, or we will need to postpone ministry until a later time. When your form is completed, please return it before your scheduled appointment, if at all possible, or bring it with you on the day of your appointment. If you are unable to keep your appointment, please phone the church office at least 24 hours in advance at 806-795-3885.

I have read these instructions, understand them, and agree to comply fully.
